The new puzzles offered in the reast three days have only increased the interest.

As has already been stated in The Washington Herald, this enhanced interest is reflected in no way more surely than by the queries which are pouring in upon libraries and book atorea, and by those which are received by this newspaper.

Not in many a day has there been such a keen and close inspection of "beer such a keen and close inspection of beer such a keen and close inspection of beer such a keen and close inspection of the interest in hooks means greatly increased interest in hooks means greatly increased interest in hooks means greatly increased business for them.

It is estimated that a comparatively small per cost of the contestants have a full score to date.

SAYS PATENT LAWS NEED NO CHANGES

National Board of Trade Believes Business Will Suffer if Statutes Are Altered.

Bince the decision in the Dick-Henry mimeograph case there has been a general effort on the part of the law-makers to write into the statutes an amendment to the patent laws of the country making it inspossible for a company to control supplies necessary to the complete success of a patented article according to a statement issued yesterday by the National Board of Trade.
